WIGWAN-LOCAL PICTURES.
Have you noticed people taking pactures in different parts of the city and did you wonder who was doing it. The first of these pictures will be shown at the Wigwam today. It is a comedy entitled Troubles of a Inrector. It was written by Serst. Chas. T. Leonard, of Part Bliss. Jess Roblinson, formerly a member of Romaine Fielding's Lubin commany, directed the pictures.

There are people in the scenes that you know personally and all of the outdoor scenes will have a findillar aspect. The pictures are not on for just what they are—the first effocts of a number of roung people who aspire to become william Farmans. Mary Pickford, etc. All of the "actors" fueed a moving picture camera for the first time and it is very evident that they heard the camera elicking every move they made, as their nervousness is apparent. Come and see the bashful boy make love and the equally bashful girl trying to appear unconcerned. See "Slim" trying to appear to rob the belice of honors. See contain Greef meet an auto thail of "pinched" actors and the after boys "greef" them. It is a scream and everyone will enjoy a good laugh. This is the first time that an amateur aight has been put on in pictures. Come and only yourselves.

There will also be a two-reel Vinnaraph feature. A Queen for An Hour. Featuring Edith Storey, Hughte Mack. etc.—Afvertisement Rates For Classified Ads: One Cent per Word. No charge less than .....$ .25 Six Consecutive Inser-

"EDNA MAYO" AT THE BIJOR.

Edna Mayo" and "Bryant Washburn" will be seen at the Bijou today in a special drama, "The Family Divided. The story is a clear expasition of the senaration of husband add wife. The play has been intelligently directed, and acted by a stay cast.

Tomorrow and Thursday, "Fine Feathers" will be seen, in five parts featuring the great actress. James Becchor—a picture very seldom seen, a wonderful production.

The andlence was stunned," said a well known critic—when "Pine Feathers" played on Broadway. The power of the story—the coming of temptation to the wife of the young engineer—his acceptance of inferior cement for the construction of the Feccos dam to satisfy his wife's money demands—the bursting of the dam and the destruction of a city—make a photo drama, that is even more gripping than the stage version. This picture has small grood scenes, notably a view of cabaretife at Murray's, a well known New York restaurant. Miss Beecher will be rememored because of her associations with the Belasco forces
